DETAILED ACTION

1. This is the first action on the merits. Claims 1-5 are pending.

Priority

2. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Drawings

3. The drawings were received on 5/27/04. These drawings are acceptable as formal and are approved.

Specification

4. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Art Unit: 3682

5. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: remove the reference number list on pages 17-18.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

6. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the disclosed invention is inoperative and therefore lacks utility.

The invention attempts to claim that a uni-directional propulsive force will be generated by swinging weights. This is impossible since that would require an action without an equal and opposite reaction. The conservation of momentum will be maintained. At one point on the rotation the mass is further from the rotational centerline and at others, it is closer. When the mass is further from the rotational centerline, the mass must increase it's local speed and when it is closer to the rotational centerline, the local speed will decrease; even though the speed of the driving shaft remains the same. In this way, momentum is conserved and no net propulsive force will result.
